Sec. 19. And be it further enacted, That the several railroad companies heretofore in name are authorized to enter into an arrangement with the Pacific Telegraph Company, the Overland Telegraph Company, and the California State Telegraph Company, to have the present line of telegraph between the Missouri river and San Francisco may be moved where or along the line of said railroad and branches as fast as said roads and branches are built; and of such arrangement, be entered into, and the transfer of said telegraph line be made in accordance herewith, to the line of said railroad and branches, such transfer shall, for all purposes of this act, be held and considered as fulfillment on the part of said railroad companies of the provisions of this act in regard to the construction of said line of telegraph. And, in case of disagreement, said telegraph companies are authorized to remove their line of telegraph along and upon the line of railroad herein contemplated without prejudice to the rights of said railroad companies as aforesaid.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That the expiration hereby created and the rates, rents, and otherwise, under the provisions of the act, shall be taken to the Secretary of the Treasury, in such report above, but to be at such
1st. The names of the shareholders and their places of residence, so far as the same can be ascertained;
2nd. The names and residences of the directors, and all other officers of the company;
3rd. The amount of stock subscribed, and the amount therof actually paid in;
4th. A description of the town of each company, of the land found good, for the construction of the road, and the cost of said surveys;
5th. The amount received from passengers on the road;
6th. The amount received for freight thereon;
7th. A statement of the cost of said road and its fixtures;
8th. A statement of the indebtedness of said company, setting forth the various kinds thereof. Which report shall be submitted to the president of the said company, and shall be presented to the Secretary of the Treasury on or before the first day of July next, in the name

Salmah Brown
Speaker of the House of Representatives

Volmen Thoxt
President of the Senate pro tempore

Approved, July 1, 1860

Abraham Lincoln